

ARTS

54 Music

Album reviews of The Darkness Dressed in Colored Lights by Sean Rowe; Together by Alex Collins, Ryan Berg, and Karl Latham; and We're Not Kiddin' Around by Frank Migliorelli and the Dirt Nappers. Plus listening recommendations from Julie Novak, cofounder of TMI Project and Radio Kingston show host.

55 Books

Anne Pyburn Craig reviews Judy White Staber's portrait of her actress mother, Joan White, in Rise Above It, Darling. Plus short reviews of The Broken Tower by Kelly Braffet, The Hard Sell by Evan Hughes, Street Legal by Rafi Zabor, Generation Disaster by Karla Vermeulen, and When the World Runs Dry by Nancy Castaldo.

56 Poetry

Poems by Ryan Brennan, David Capellaro, Tom Cherwin, Steve Clark, Joshua Fisher, Clifford Henderson, Tony Howarth, David Lukas, Ze'ev Willy Neumann, Perry Nicholas, Mel Sadownick, Theo Steeve, J Sweet, Ryan Tracy, Chas Weeden. Edited by Phillip X Levine.

GUIDE

- 58 The Artichoke Storytelling Series returns to Howland Cultural Center on February 19.
- 59 The Hudson Hall Jazz Fest fetasures two weekends of performances in Hudson.
- 60 In Memoriam: A remembrance of actor and director Kevin Archambault.
- 61 In Memoriam: Michael Lang changed the cultural landscape with just one concert.
- 63 Live Music: Some of the concerts we're going to this month include Waxahatchee at Tarrytown Music Hall, Cate Le Bon at Colony, and Ometiquette at Quinn's.
- 65 The Short List: Jim Gaffigan at Mid-Hudson Civic Center, Flee at Upsate Films, Pete Correale at Bearsville Theater, "Unnatural Acts" at SUNY New Paltz, and John Lewis: Good Trouble at Rosendale Theater.
- 66 Art exhibits: Gallery and museum shows from across the region.

HOROSCOPES

- 68 It's Sill the Economy, Stupid
While individuals can't influence global markets much, love cannot be devalued.

PARTING SHOT

- 72 Glacier Elegies
Jannika Peerna's artist work of the last decade has been focused on climate change.

Visitor, Kazumi Tanaka, 2021, deer skull found on Mount Desert Island, wood, metal string, 15 x 4 x 4 inches.

Tanaka's work will be featured in the solo exhibition "Beyond Silence" at Fridman Gallery in Beacon. Photo by Tom Moore.

ART EXHIBITS, PAGE 66